

~ Quote of the Week ~

If we had no winter, the spring would not be so pleasant; if we did not sometimes taste of adversity, prosperity would not be so welcome. ~Anne Bradstreet

~ WINDHAM CENTER SCHOOL NEWS ~

Daddies and daughters filled the Windham Center School Cafetorium to dance the night away, during the Windham Recreation's Second Annual Daddy/Daughter Dance. Over 300 people attended the event, and the people loved it.

Dads were all decked out in suits and ties, while the daughters were dressed to the nines. Many dads sported beautiful boutonnieres, while precious daughters wore wrist corsages. (See picture below)

Several of the young damsels had had their hair made up and those special extras done for that special date with their dad. The dance floor came alive as dads and daughters partnered up to do various line dances, the chicken dance, and the hokey-pokey. As the DJ mixed up the music, dads swept their daughters off their feet and even danced cheek to cheek during the slow dances. The hearts of everyone who attended the event were filled with joy and excitement.

There are many events of sons and fathers throughout the town, but this is the only daddy/daughter event, and it is always a huge success.
